

Conflict Of Interest

On occasions, employees may meet situations where their personal interests might conflict with the Chamber's interests. To avoid these circumstances the Chamber's policy on conflicts of interest is as follows:

1. No employees should have any personal interest outside the Chamber which could in any way conflict with the Chamber's interests.